KITE'S

PHILADELPHIA

DIRECTORY

FOR

1814:

CONTAINING

THE NAMES, PROFESSIONS, AND RESIDENCE

OF

HEADS OF FAMILIES AND PERSONS IN BUSINESS

IN THE

CITY AND SUBURBS;

WITH OTHER USEFUL INFORMATION.

PUBLISHED BY B. & T. KITE,
20, NORTH THIRD STREET.

Price $1 50.

TO THE PUBLIC.

E. & T. Kite having purchased of John A. Paxton, late editor of the Philadelphia Directory, his right to the work, and it being their intention to issue it annually, they have to request that all removals may be made known to them as soon as convenient. It will obviate many difficulties they now labour under, and be a means of making the work more correct.——The persons employed to note the residence of the families, it must be admitted, are liable to err, particularly in the spelling: to counteract the effects of which, references are made to names whose pronunciation are similar. Yet with all the care which has been taken, it cannot be expected that the work will be entirely perfect. To those acquainted with the frequent removals in large cities, no apology will be deemed requisite on this head. But though many errors may be found, let it also be recollected that a variety of information is furnished. The present edition contains, exclusive of the residence of the inhabitants, much matter interesting to the citizens at large. A correct list of the civil officers of the national Government, and the Representatives in Congress from the different states are contained in it, and also the names of the officers and representatives of the state of Pennsylvania, of the city officers and councils, together with such extracts from the Revenue Laws as were deemed of consequence to be generally known.

2nd month, 1814.

☞ For names not found in the body of the work, see list of "late removals, &c."

There are alternate references from the names that sound alike, throughout the work; viz. Allison, see Ellison; or Ellison, see Allison.

The reader will please to observe the following general rule for finding the numbers on houses, in the different streets in this city. In those streets that run east and west, say High street, the numbers begin from the Delaware, the odd being on the north side. In those that run north and south, say Fourth street, the numbers begin from High street, running north and south, the odd being on the east side.

PATENTS.

Patents are obtained by application to the Secretary of State, for any new invention, discovery or improvement. The applicant is the only judge by law, of the propriety of the application, and a Patent is not to be considered as any evidence of the efficacy or goodness of the invention, discovery or improvement, nor any exclusion of the rights of others. It only secures rights from infringement.—A patent can only be granted for one invention, discovery or improvement. It is granted for fourteen years. The applicant, if a citizen, takes legally, an oath or affirmation, 'that he does verily believe that he is the true inventor or discoverer of the said improvement;' if not a citizen, but having resided two years in the country, he adds, 'and that to the best of his knowledge, the same hath not been used or known in this or any foreign country.'—He transmits a certificate signed by any respectable individual, of his citizenship, or residence for two years. He gives in writing a specification of the discovery, invention or improvement, as short but explicit as he can; explaining by words, not only the invention or improvement, but its use and advantage, without any reference to a drawing or model, for the specification enters into and makes part of the letters patent.—This must be signed before two witnesses. A drawing must also be sent if the subject admit of one, with explanatory references: and if the complexity of the invention or improvement should render the drawing and explanation, insufficient for the full comprehension of the subject, a model will also be required. It is material that these be executed in a manner not unworthy public inspection; for at the expiration of the patent, they may, if thought worthy, be made public. If two persons apply at the same time for patents, and the Secretary of State thinks their discoveries, inventions or improvements interfere, an arbitrator may be chosen by each of the applicants, and if they cannot agree, an umpire may be chosen by the Sec'y of State, to determine who is the first inventor.

This association is formed for the promotion of harmony and friendly intercourse, between the different hose companies in time of fire; and for the collection and distribution of all subscriptions and donations, intended for the support of these valuable institutions.—It consists of two delegates, elected annually, from each company, who hold monthly meetings, for the transaction of business committed to their charge. The companies represented in this association, possess upwards of eight thousand feet of hose.

Philadelphia Dispensary.

FIFTH BELOW LIBRARY STREET.

Was instituted in April 1786.—Its object is to afford medical relief to the indigent sick. It is supported by annual subscriptions of one guinea, or ten guineas a life subscription. The contributors recommend the patients; such as are able to go out receive medical assistance at the dispensary, where the apothecary resides, and the medicines are kept on six days of the week; those who cannot go abroad, are visited at their own residences, prescriptions for whom may be had at any time.
